Dear Sir & Brother:

Re: J. T. Malange - SIN 704-349-398 - Pension Enquiry

This correspondence is in response to your request dated May 5, 2000 for certain plan documents.

Firstly, please accept my apologies for the delay in responding to your letter, as you can appreciate the last several months have been a very difficult period and we have been responding to many inquires. We thank you for your patience. It was good to see you in Kamloops in May.

Please be advised that Section 10(4) of the Pension Benefits Standards Act specifies that a person entitled to a benefit or the spouse or a designated beneficiary or agent of the person entitled to a benefit can examine the following documents within ten working days after receipt of a written request:

- (a) A provision of the pension plan that was in force on any date included in a period during which that person, or the person through whom the benefit derives, was a member or, if that person is a former member, that otherwise affects the benefit;
- (b) Any document that concerns conditions of that person's employment and that contains provisions relating to the plan;
- (c) Any trust deed or agreement, insurance contract, bylaw or resolution relating to the plan;
- (d) Any agreement relating to the investment of the pension fund of the plan;
- (d) The Statement of Investment policies and procedures respecting the plan;
- (e) The three most recent returns filed with Superintendent under Section 9(3)(a);
- (f) The two most recent actuarial valuation reports filed with the Superintendent under Section 9(3)(b);
- (g) Any prescribed document (refer to the Pension Benefits Standards Act Regulations for particulars).

Accordingly, we would ask that you contact our office to specify which of the foregoing documents you would like to inspect and arrange for a mutually convenient appointment for you to examine those documents at our office.

Thank you.

Fraternally yours,
