Sirs:

This is to advise that I've had little satisfaction from you, your appointed administrator or government regulatory authorities regarding pension plan matters I've been concerned with for quite some time and conveyed to you and/or said authorities through a series of letters over a substantial period of time.

The purpose of this letter is to put you on notice that I have not abandoned my effort regarding the concerns I have and your duty of accountability in regard to them.

You are further advised that: It is my intention, when I acquire the resources, to proceed, through litigation, in an endeavour to obtain satisfaction respecting matters of my concern.

Yours truly,

James Malange, pension plan member.
